THE CELEBRATION

This family-oriented celebration draws 3,000-4,000 visitors. This year promises to be bigger and better with full support and participation from local schools, dozens of environmental exhibitors, a variety of activities, food and shows all promoting "earth-friendly" services, products and organizations. Some of the highlights of the day include: Birds of Prey at 1pm, petting zoo, magic shows, hands-on reptile show, scavenger hunt, face painting, more!

INFORMATION FOR ENVIRONMENTAL EXHIBITORS

- Set-up is 8:00am - 9:30am the day of the celebration.
- After unloading, park your vehicle in the lower lot on the right side of the school.
- Plan to be set up by 9:30am. We also ask that you keep your exhibit assembled until the end of the celebration at 3:00pm. Please abide by this request.
- Please submit exhibitor/activity confirmation form to Pamela Roach by March 9th.
- You will be supplied with one six-foot rectangular table and two chairs. Please bring your own table cover.
- Food vendors will be on site for lunch, snacks and beverages.

Thank for your interest in attending Hamden's 2014 Earth Day Celebration!
