HAMDEN POLICE DEPARTMENT OFFERS CAR SEAT INSTALLATION DEMONSTRATIONS

HAMDEN – Mayor Curt Balzano Leng would like to remind Hamden residents that the Hamden Police Department will be teaching proper car seat installation on Tuesdays from 10am-2pm throughout the month of December. The demonstrations will be by appointment only to ensure a complete understanding for parents and caregivers with this surprisingly complicated task.

Mayor Curt Leng encourages all parents and guardians with small children to attend these demonstrations. “All of us should be proud and comforted to know that the Hamden Police Department does such an excellent job of educating parents and guardians on the correct methods of installing car seats. These demonstrations could minimize injuries that children sustain during accidental situations and I implore those tasked with raising and caring for young children to attend.”
