Hamden Town Center Park to host Food Truck Festival

Food, music and fun on October 17th

Hamden - To celebrate the end of the 2014 season at Hamden Town Center Park, Mayor Scott D. Jackson is excited to announce that the park will host its third and biggest Hamden Food Truck Festival on Friday, October 17th, from 4:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. The Food Truck Festival has grown over the past year, and with more than 40 food trucks there will be something for everyone.

Mayor Jackson said, "We are so pleased with the success of our Town Center Park events, especially the Food Truck Festivals. These events bring the Hamden community together to meet their neighbors and form a stronger bond to each other and the community. This year the October Food Truck Festival will be bigger and better than ever, and we are excited to invite residents and visitors to come out and celebrate with friends, family, food and fun."

Along with a long list of great food trucks, there will be musical entertainment, a Kid's Fun Zone featuring a dance party, videos on the big screen, a touch-a-truck area, crafts, and more. The Town will have some seating available, but attendees are encouraged to bring chairs and blankets for a true picnic in the park. Admission, parking and entertainment are always free at Hamden Town Center Park.

Town Center Park is located at 2623 Dixwell Avenue in between the Miller Library and Hamden Middle School. There is abundant parking throughout the Town Center area.
