Join Us for a Fun-Filled Weekend in Town Center Park

Farmers Market, Movies & Baseball

Hamden – Mayor Scott D. Jackson along with the Town Center Park and Arts Commissions want to remind residents and visitors of the wide variety of entertainment and events happening this weekend right in the center of Town.

Friday, August 16th will bring the weekly Farmer's Market from 11am – 3pm. Stop by for a bite to eat from one of the prepared food vendors and pick up all your fruits and veggies for the weekend. While you're at the market, why not visit our new 7,000 square foot all-abilities playground, Josh's Jungle. It's a big hit with kids of all ages.

Friday night will bring a decidedly European feel to the park with the presentation of “Midnight in Paris” on the big screen in front of the Rotary Pavilion. Le Petit Gourmet will be there with an al fresco bistro, DiSorbo's will be serving up Italian pastries, Giovanni's ice cream, Elm City Kettlecorn will be there for your popcorn fix and Firedog with their grilled favorites. Bring a blanket and join us for the show at 8pm.

Sunday, August 18th will bring Major League Baseball to the park. Put on your team colors, and join your fellow fans for the NY Yankees vs. The Boston Red Sox ESPN simulcast on the 40 foot jumbo screen starting at 8pm.

Mayor Jacson adds, “Town Center Park is the place to be all summer long in Hamden. I'm proud to offer our residents so many recreation and entertainment opportunities. It's free and fun for the entire family.”

It's all happening right here in Hamden this weekend and it's all FREE. Hope to see you in the park this weekend!
