Hamden Traffic Calming Survey Online survey extended to May 31st.
Traffic Calming Workshop for Hamden's East Side, Wintergreen and Hamden Plains Neighborhoods is this Wednesday (May 22nd) as scheduled.

Fitzgerald & Halliday Inc. and Town of Hamden

Hamden, CT - Fitzgerald and Halliday Inc. (FHI) of Hartford will conduct a traffic calming workshop for the East Side, Wintergreen and Hamden Plains neighborhoods of Hamden on Wednesday, May 22nd. The workshop will be held at the Miller Senior Center in Hamden; it is open to the public and will begin at 6:00 pm. The workshop will include a presentation of initial findings and a working session. The goal of this workshop is to solicit feedback from the community regarding traffic concerns in the East Side, Wintergreen and Hamden Plains neighborhoods.

An online survey about traffic and transportation in the neighborhoods is also currently available. All those interested are encouraged to participate. The survey for the East Side neighborhood can be accessed at: www.surveymonkey.com/s/east-side. The survey for the Wintergreen and Hamden Plains neighborhoods can be accessed at:

www.surveymonkey.com/s/Plains-Wintergreen. The survey deadline has been extended to May 31st.

FHI is a transportation planning firm hired by the South Central Regional Council of Governments to complete a Traffic Calming Study for the East Side, Wintergreen and Hamden Plains neighborhoods. The study will develop recommendations for improving traffic safety and transportation access for all modes of travel to, from, and within the neighborhoods.
