Hamden to Host New England Regional Baseball Tournament

HAMDEN – Mayor Curt Balzano Leng is pleased to announce that the Town of Hamden has come to an agreement with Triple Crown Sports, Inc. for the use of Cesare Field and Legion Field for the New England Regional Baseball Tournament, which will be held June 18th-20th, 2016, from 8:00am to sunset.

The agreement states that Hamden will continue to maintain the fields and Triple Crown Sports will pay a fee of $300 per day, per field and an additional $75.00 per field per day, per field, for field maintenance and preparation.

Commenting on the agreement, Mayor Curt Leng had this to say, “We are very excited that Triple Crown Sports, Inc. chose Hamden for this tournament. It will be a great benefit to our local economy, especially to small businesses which specialize in food and hospitality related services. I encourage Hamden residents to attend the tournament and enjoy quality competition with America’s favorite pastime. We look forward to the tournament, and are grateful to begin what we hope is a long-lasting relationship with Triple Crown Sports. ”

More updates about the New England Regional Baseball Tournament will be provided as the event draws closer. Keep an eye out for updates on www.hamden.com and the Town’s Facebook page!
