Student Codes of Conduct

Extract from Quinnipiac University Code of Conduct for Off-Campus Living:

Residential Life Introduction

University housing is one of the many learning experiences you will enjoy at Quinnipiac. University housing consists of traditional residence halls, apartment-style units and off-campus houses. Each of these options provides an opportunity to interact with students from a wide variety of geographical locations and cultural backgrounds. Your experiences with your fellow students will be enhanced by your tolerance, respect for others, and regard for the standards of good citizenship. Living in University housing is a privilege; not a right. Resident students are subject to the conditions set forth in the housing contract and the Student Code of Conduct. Students may be dismissed from University housing for violations.

All students, whether living in one of the on-campus residence halls, apartments, or off-campus properties are subject to the same University policies and procedures.

For more information please visit Quinnipiac University's Website:

http://www.quinnipiac.edu/prebuilt/pdf/studenthandbook1314/handbook1314\_policies.pdf

Quinnipiac University Good Neighbor Policy

Quinnipiac University students have lived off campus in the Hamden and New Haven area for many years, and the vast majority of students have developed positive and lasting relationships with area residents and the local community. Off-campus students must understand and appreciate that residents of a particular community have made a long-term commitment to their neighborhood; students are often temporary members of the local community who reside there for the duration of their academic studies. The quality of life and the overall character of a neighborhood can be greatly influenced by the lifestyles and sense of community exercised by student residents. A respectful and courteous attitude is usually returned in kind and makes the neighborhood a more pleasant place in which to live.

Living off campus can be an important experience that carries additional responsibilities. Students living in the community are, at all times, representatives of Quinnipiac University and the conduct of those students reflects directly on the University. Families living in the neighborhoods that make up Hamden and the surrounding communities have a right to enjoy a reasonable level of peace and quiet. As students, academic and personal schedules often conflict with the schedules of families and other residents. Students are expected to exercise good judgment and be sensitive to the needs of their neighbors.

Party hosts put themselves in serious jeopardy when their guests act irresponsibly. As a social host, off-campus residents assume all the risks associated with Connecticut state laws and municipal ordinances regulating the legal drinking age, noise and public safety when hosting a gathering. Connecticut state law and court decisions have held the social host liable for personal injury and property damage caused to a third party as a result of the irresponsible service of alcoholic beverages to guests, regardless of age. In addition, social hosts do not need to actually provide alcohol to their guests; they merely need to provide the venue for others to engage in irresponsible behavior. Those risks are compounded when minors are involved. The University views the hosts/residents of an off-campus property where an incident takes place to be responsible for that incident in its entirety, including the behavior of their guests, regardless of the hosts' original intentions for their event.

The University recognizes that some students wish to live off-campus, be responsible members of the local community, and experience independent living. However, when students use this independence to engage in actions or behaviors that attract the attention and concern of neighbors or others within the community, the University will respond accordingly. Dangerous and/or risky behavior, public intoxication, disorderly conduct, loud music and/or other noise late into the night, and high levels of vehicle traffic in the neighborhood are examples of matters of concern. Living off-campus does not alleviate students' responsibilities as a member of the Quinnipiac University community to abide by the Student Code of Conduct. As stated in the Student Handbook, "Quinnipiac reserves the right to address, through the Student Code of Conduct process, incidents which occur off campus that may endanger the health, safety and welfare of others and/or adversely affect the University and/or the pursuit of its objectives." Students must take the responsibility of living off-campus seriously, and remember that the University's community standards apply wherever a student chooses to live.

Extract from Southern Connecticut State Code of Conduct for Off-Campus Living:

Part III: Prohibited Conduct

A student who is found responsible for engaging in conduct that violates this Code on any Connecticut State University campus or on property controlled by the University or by any University affiliate shall be subject to the sanctions described in this Code. Students who attempt to engage in conduct that violates this Code, who knowingly encourage, aid or assist another person in engaging in such conduct, or who agree with another person, explicitly or otherwise, to engage in such conduct, may also be subject to disciplinary action. Off-campus misconduct may be subject to the jurisdiction of the University and addressed through its judicial procedures if one of the following conditions is met: (i) a student engages in prohibited conduct at an official University event, at a University-sanctioned event, or at an event sponsored by a recognized student organization; or (ii) a student engages in prohibited conduct under such circumstances that reasonable grounds exist for believing that the accused student poses a threat to the life, health or safety of any member of the University community or to the property of the University. The decision to extend the University's jurisdiction to off-campus misconduct shall be made by the Vice President of Student Affairs on a case-by-case basis.

'Good-Neighbor' Guide

Please be mindful of the following:

- Only 4 or less persons are allowed to be living in a house during a given lease.
- Trash/Recycling
  1. Trash is picked up once a week. All trash must be placed in the Town-provided green cart, at the curb, with the lid opening facing the street, using the arrows on the top of the lids as a guide. A cart cannot be picked up if it is sideways, backwards, behind another or behind an obstacle. The cart must be placed 3 feet away from other carts and any obstacles such as a mailbox, telephone pole or parked car. All trash must be inside the cart – any trash outside the cart or in a cart with an open lid will be left behind.
    - Recycling such as paper, cardboard glass and plastic (with recycling triangles #1-7; if it does not have a number then it is not recyclable) is picked up every other week the same day as the trash. Place any recyclable items (not refuse) together in the town-provided, blue, recycling cart for curbside pickup, with the lid opening facing the street, using the arrows on the top of the lids as a guide. Each cart must be placed 3 feet away from other carts and any obstacles such as a mailbox, telephone pole or parked car. You may combine your paper recycling with your glass food and beverage containers, metal food and beverage containers, juice/milk cartons and plastic containers. Be sure the containers are empty and rinsed. Remember all acceptable recyclables, including cardboard, must be placed in the recycling cart or they will be left behind. Make sure the lid of the recycling cart is closed.
    - Bulk trash can be put out on the curb only during the months of October and April.
- Parking
  - Vehicles cannot be parked in required front or side yards- except in a side yard that is already paved, and within ten feet of the rear property boundary (ask your landlord what the setback is).

➤ Parties

- Remember that your neighbors don't keep the same work/sleep schedule that you do.

➤ Property maintenance

- Keep the grass cut and yard free of debris, including beer cans, kegs, dilapidated furniture and litter.

*You are still subject to the provisions of the Student Handbook set forth by your university

Lastly, get to know your new neighbors!
